

By the numbers

9
years

How long on average it takes people to seek help after a diagnosis of hearing loss

28.8
million

Number of adults in the United States who could benefit from hearing aids

200
percent

How much more likely it is for men to have hearing loss compared to women.
